

IBSF Congress 2024 to be hosted in Lake Placid

Lausanne (IBSF) The IBSF Congress 2024 is scheduled to be hosted in Lake Placid (NY), USA from the 17th to the 20th of June 2024 - this has been recently approved by the IBSF Executive Committee.

Upon initiative of ORDA (Olympic Regional Development Authority), both International Olympic Sliding Sports Federations will hold their Congresses consecutively in Lake Placid. FIL's congress will begin on the 14th of June and conclude on the 15th of June, with a joint meeting involving FIL, IBSF and ORDA (Olympic Regional Development Authority) representatives set for June 16th, 2024.

The details of the IBSF Congress are as follows:

|                           |                                  |
|---------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Monday, June 17th 2024    | IBSF Executive Committee Meeting |
| Tuesday, June 18th 2024   | Pre-Congress                     |
| Wednesday, June 19th 2024 | Congress                         |
| Thursday, June 20th 2024  | Departure                        |

„Hosting the annual Congresses of two Olympic Winter Sports Federations back-to-back at the same location will give our Members and stakeholders a unique opportunity to enhance efficiency and reduce travel impact at the same time. We highly appreciate ORDA's initiative and extend our thanks to our member USABS for supporting the event.“, states the IBSF President Ivo Ferriani.